A Neighborhood Riot Threatens Serious Trouble.

THE NEGROES ARRESTED.

A White Man Whipped a Negro Woman for Using Profane Language to His Wife.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Nov. 24.—A special from Opelika, Ala., to the Advertiser of yesterday says: "A negro uprising occurred in this county this morning in Beat Seven, twelve miles from this city, and to-night eleven ring leaders are in jail and a large posse of armed citizens are scouring the neighborhood for the others."

Yesterday Mr. John F. Whatley, a wealthy citizen, residing twelve miles from Opelika, severely thrashed a negro woman for using profane language to his wife. One hundred or more negroes in the neighborhood arose and swore vengeance on Mr. Whatley. Open threats against his life were made and half a hundred negroes secreted themselves in ambush and waited for Mr. Whatley to return from Opelika.

All the negroes were heavily armed and were bold in their threats. They remained secreted near Mr. Whatley's home all last night, and this morning citizens in the neighborhood got wind of the affair and several gentlemen rode to Opelika and informed the officials of the city of their discovery.

A posse numbering some 200 men quickly got together all the firearms available and, headed by Sheriff W. B. Gibson, hastened to the scene.

Arriving there they found the negroes concealed in different places, and before they realized the situation seven of them were safely handcuffed. They were all armed. A stampede was made and the rest escaped for the time being. A posse is still searching for them, however, and many other arrests will be made. Mr. Whatley was with the sheriff's posse and a negro made an effort to strike him after he was handcuffed. Both whites and negroes are aroused and bloodshed is feared before the matter is ended."

IVES FORGES AHEAD.

He Secures a Good Lead Over Schaefer by Brilliant Playing.

Schaefer set another hot pace at Music hall in Chicago last night in his billiard contest with Napoleon Ives. When the game was called Wednesday night he had up 111 on an unfinished run. He continued it last night with the balls in an indifferently position near the lower end and ran 87.

Ives started in with an air of business, but fell down on the seventh shot. Barring a run of 58 in the fourth inning, Schaefer did practically nothing from then until the tenth inning. Ives got a little torpid, too, and there was considerable desultory playing on both sides, although Ives scored 102 in the sixth inning by pure skill, breaking on a kiss shot dead from the cushion. The black and white alternated pretty rapidly after that for a few innings. Then Ives recovered his master stroke and in an all-over-the-table play scored 120. For the second time during the game he was again ahead of his antagonist, the total score standing: Ives, 1,816; Schaefer, 1,759.

This example put Schaefer on his mettle a bit, and his next inning, the eleventh, witnessed some peerless playing. After making 42 he failed on the easiest shot of the series. The game was low after that and unmarked by events, excepting the master shot of the game by Ives, who, having all three balls in a line on the rail, jumped the cue ball, struck the first object ball lightly on top and scored on the other, gracefully, six inches away, amid great applause.

Schaefer became lamentably weak and manifested a lack of confidence in himself. It was from this time almost a settled fact that it was the Napoleon's night and he cinched that conclusion by playing the prettiest nursing innings of the whole series. He scored 297, breaking on a short cushion draw, a shot he had made three dozen times during this run.

At the conclusion of the evening's play the score stood: Ives, 987; Schaefer, 628. Ives' average for the evening was 28 7-35, and Schaefer's was 17 33-35.

The total score now stands: Ives, 2,400; Schaefer, 2,228.

A MONSTER TUMOR.

It Was Removed from Mrs. Stevens at Emergency Hospital Today.

A monster tumor, weighing in the neighborhood of thirty pounds, was removed from the body of Mrs. Stevens, who lives a couple of miles north of town, on the Deming farm, today.

The lady has been a patient of Dr. E. F. Gresham, was informed that an operation was the only hope of prolonging her life for any considerable period.

She consented to have it performed and was brought to the Emergency hospital, where the operation was performed by Drs. J. W. Ferguson, W. J. Ferguson, J. W. Trader and E. F. Gresham.

Dr. Will Ferguson began using the knife at 11 o'clock a. m., and an hour and ten minutes later the tumor, of a gristly substance, was successfully removed.

The patient's condition is exceedingly critical, however.

A SEDUCER KILLED.

A Brother of J. Boone Dodge Fires the Fatal Shot.

J. Boone Dodge, of this city, who travels for the St. Louis Republic, is in receipt of sad intelligence from Davisville, Cal., regarding his brother, Chas. Dodge, which is fully set forth in the following Associated press dispatch from there:

"H. M. Eaton, a night telegraph operator, was mysteriously shot and killed last night. He was found in a dying condition a short distance from where he had staggered after being shot. This morning Charles Dodge, a resident of Davisville, walked into the sheriff's office and gave himself up."

"Dodge admitted the shooting, but said it was a painful matter which he did not wish to talk about, and in which his sister was implicated. His sister was a student in the telegraph office in which Eaton was operator."

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The Lehigh railroad started three freight trains this morning with instructions to run carefully. Trouble is brewing.

Amended the Article.

Important changes have been made in the articles of agreement signed by Corbett and Mitchell for their coming match before the Duval Athletic club, of Jacksonville, Fla.

The clause relating to the "smallest gloves obtainable" and the "contest to be twenty rounds or more," which appeared in the old articles, have been stricken out, and the power of the referee has been increased. The changes had to be made in order to have everything satisfactory to the Florida officials.

INDIGNANT RUNNERS.

Engineers Who Have Donned Their War Paint.

A deep indignation prevails in Brotherhood circles at Galesburg, Ill., because of the statements telegraphed from Buffalo that the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy engineers who have gone east to take the place of strikers on the Lehigh road are men who went off the Burlington on the occasion of the great strike.

The reverse is true. The sixty men who have gone from Galesburg, including those who went Wednesday night, and from Burlington, Ia., are largely men who took the places of the Burlington strikers. Many of them came from the east. Not a few are men who had been laid off by the Burlington for wrecks or garnishees or other causes. The Galesburg lodge of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers sends three of its members to Buffalo today to deny the statement sent out. Nearly all the old Burlington strikers have run on union roads or are engaged in other business.

Quo Warranto Proceedings Not Commenced Yet.

None of the officers of the Guaranty Investment company, of Nevada, general offices in Chicago, home office in St. Louis, who on Wednesday were found guilty of using the mails for a scheme, that is a lottery within the law, returned from Chicago yesterday, says the Globe-Democrat. Mr. L. S. Metcalf, jr., attorney for the company, was in the city. He stated Attorney General Walker has not as yet commenced quo warranto proceedings against the company in the supreme court. The papers are now being prepared.

The attorney general will claim that there is no law authorizing the incorporators of companies to sell bonds in Missouri, and that the act requiring such companies to deposit $100,000 collateral with the state treasurer is not sufficient to authorize their existence. The quo warranto proceedings go no further. If the character of the business is to be attacked, in view of the Chicago verdict, that is a matter for the criminal courts, the Missouri statutes being explicit upon the subject of lotteries.

An officer of the St. Louis Mutual Bond Investment company said to a Globe-Democrat reporter:

"We are conducting a business upon the same general lines as the Guaranty company. Our multiple is different. The order of the postmaster general excluding the literature of the Guaranty company from the mails also includes us. Since its issue we have practically done nothing. We have arranged to change the form of our business so as to eliminate the 'chance element' as to the maturity of bonds in accordance with the decision of the attorney general."

OFFICERS NAMED.

An Important Meeting of the G. A. R. Last Night.

Gen. Geo. R. Smith post No. 53, Grand Army of the Republic, held an important meeting last night, at which the attendance was large and much interest manifested.

Officers were nominated for the ensuing term, as follows:

Post commander—Daniel Grow.
Senior vice commander—John Rippey.
Junior vice commander—Milton Barde.

Chaplain—John Holswan.
Surgeon—Dr. J. W. Trader.
Quartermaster—J. A. Capen.
Officers of the day—Dr. I. T. Bronson and Wm. Campbell.
Officer of the guard—Fred Snyder.

The nomination of four delegates to the encampment to be held at Lebanon, next spring, was postponed until the next meeting, the 2d Thursday in December.

J. A. Capen recited most acceptably "Thomas at Chickamauga." At the next meeting Past Post Commander E. J. Smith will give an account of a raid from Pilot Knob to Little Rock and A. W. Wenzburg will deliver a recitation.

Married His Victim.

Official Paper of the City of Sedalia.

If congress changes the duty on sugar it should be to remove the bounty now paid to a few sugar planters and put the refined article on the free list.

Will our republican exchanges which claim that the industrial stagnation is due to fear of tariff reform please explain what is the matter with wheat, cotton, horses and mules?

The tariff bill now being prepared by the ways and means committee will be completed next Monday, and after its provisions are made public it can be intelligently commended or condemned.

SOUTH CAROLINA is having a great deal of trouble with her liquor law and another gang of constables have been mobbed. The idea of state monopoly in the liquor traffic is not a very popular one, since it has been tried.

THE Springfield Leader is impressed with the idea that the Missouri Pacific will build to Springfield. It is probable that as soon as spring opens that company will have to build or see some other road invade the territory.

THE DEMOCRAT'S "leg artists" take many things for granted this crimp November weather.—Today's Gazette.

And the Gazette's alleged artists take the same things bodily from the DEMOCRAT without credit.

THERE are 110 families in Scranton, Pennsylvania, who are on the verge of starvation. The heads of these families have been laboring in "protected" industries, but the "protection" seems to have been to the employer rather than to the laborer.

THE Special Trade Edition of the DEMOCRAT will be issued at an early day and all patrons who have promised to send in lists of names to whom the paper shall be mailed are requested to attend to the matter at once, in order that wrappers may be properly addressed and the paper mailed without delay.

THE Kansas City Star, as bearing upon the water works controversy, says no corporation would dare cut off the city's water supply. This is probably the truth of the matter, for the company would have as much to lose as the city by such a policy. The courts should decide the matter and protect the interests of both parties to the controversy.

THE question of a constitutional convention should be made an issue by the live, progressive men in every county in Missouri when the campaign for the election of members of the general assembly comes on. There are radical changes needed in order to fit our fundamental law to the changed conditions brought about during the last twenty years.

THE calamity howlers to the contrary notwithstanding, the people of the United States have a great deal to be thankful for. At our worst periods of business depression the American people are happier and more prosperous than those of the old world, and the poorest of our people count as every day necessities what are really luxuries in other countries.

If the Missouri delegation surrenders and allows itself to be paroled it might as well move to New York before seeking re-election.—Chronicle.

Stuff and nonsense! The Missouri delegation is in hearty accord with the people of the state, and will oppose the administration when they think it is wrong and support it when it is right. There is no surrender in such a course.

THE republican papers which assert that congress is going to revise the tariff in the interest of British manufacturers do not believe what they say. Any sane man knows that among American citizens of any and all parties, American interests are dearer than those of any foreign nation. Political parties, led by human beings, are liable to err and to enact laws which injure rather than benefit the public, but there is enough of true patriotism in all parties to stand up for their own country as against the world. It will be a dark day for the United States when one half of her voters become the agents or tools for foreign interests, but the DEMOCRAT does not believe that day will ever come.

A MISSOURI educational institution has reached the point, says the Kansas City Times, where it may receive a great benefit by the exercise of a little enterprise on the part of its friends. It seems that the munificence of Chicago's rich men has not been confined wholly to that city, but has reached out to embrace and benefit other cities as well. Dr. A. K. Pearson of Chicago has agreed to donate $50,000 to the endowment of Drury college at Springfield, Mo., provided that city will raise $150,000, or $25,000 if Springfield and other friends of the college will put up $75,000. The latter proposition is the one aimed at, and the business men of Springfield and members of the Congregational church all over Missouri are bestirring themselves to the utmost. It would be one of the best investments the Ozark city could make, and, although the solicitors have to go against hard times and money scarcity until the very air seems blue, it is earnestly hoped that the characteristic Southwest Missouri push will accomplish the much desired result, and place its favorite college in a position to class with the leading institutions of the state.

Mrs. Heard Very Ill.

The funeral of Judge George Heard, the father of Representative Heard, of Missouri, says a Washington dispatch of the 23d, has been indefinitely postponed, owing to the illness of his widow. Mrs. Heard has been unable to leave her room since the death of her husband, and it cannot be said at this time when she will be recovered sufficiently to travel. As soon as possible the remains will be taken to Missouri, and due notice of the funeral will be given.

Will Address the Men.

Rev. W. H. Shaw, evangelist, will address the men's meeting at Association hall, 510 Ohio street, Sunday p. m. at just 3 o'clock. The song service, which constitutes a large part of the hour's service, is aided by a cornetist and is interspersed with solos and duets. These meetings are gaining rapidly; 125 men were in attendance last Sunday, and 150 are expected this week. All young men will be heartily welcomed. Seats free.

Today's Police Court.

In the absence of Recorder Rauck, Justice Levens held police court this morning. J. M. Shobe and Lee Howe, charged with intoxication, had their cases continued until the 27th inst. Willis Seering and Mike Connor, for trespass, were fined $10 each and were given a stay to leave town, as was also Geo. Miller, colored, convicted of late hours under suspicious circumstances.

THE HAWAIIAN QUESTION.

No Changes In Affairs As Yet—Royalists Are Boastful.

Special to the DEMOCRAT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23.—The steamer Alameda, which arrived at San Francisco, brings information that there are no changes in the situation in Hawaii.

The queen called upon Minister Willis but that official has not returned the call.

At the reception Willis spoke in a diplomatic but agreeable manner to the American league. The phrase implying that he had instructions to restore the queen to the throne was taken up by the royalists and they appear more boastful than ever.

The American league and the Citizens' club both demand the removal of all royalists from office.

Secretary Gresham, when informed of the above, stated that he was not expecting the Alameda to bring the news of the queen's installation.

NATIONAL GRANGE.

Secretary Morton's Language at Chicago Denounced.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 23.—In the National Grange yesterday afternoon the committee on the good of the order submitted its report on the language of Secretary of Agriculture Morton, used at Chicago, referring to the grange; it is alleged he condemned and censured the organization. The language was characterized as unbecoming a gentleman, a man in high office and a member in the president's cabinet. It was resolved that so far as the grange is concerned, there is not one word of truth in what Mr. Morton said, but on the contrary it is strictly non-partisan and tends to educate and elevate the farmers to higher, nobler, citizenship, teaching proper methods of farming, marketing products and purchasing goods; that the secretary, by stating untruths, has proved himself unworthy of his position; that the president owes it to the farmers of the largest agricultural nation in the world to appoint a secretary in sympathy with them. The report was adopted. A committee was appointed to submit a report to President Cleveland.

The new officers were installed yesterday evening.

TESTING ITS CHARTER.

Quo Warranto Proceedings Against the Guarantee Investment Company.

In speaking of the conviction of the officers of the Guarantee Investment company in the United States court in Chicago, today's Globe-Democrat says:

"The company has a proceeding to defend here at home which attacks its very existence. Nothing in the Chicago conviction would prevent the company from continuing business through the agency of the express companies and local agents. Attorney General Walker last month brought a quo warranto proceeding directly before the supreme court, in which he seeks to enjoin the company from doing business, on the ground that it is not legally chartered under the constitution of the state.

This action, which is far more important than the federal prosecution, will be heard before the present term of the court, and L. S. Metcalfe, jr., is at Jefferson City as legal representative of the company."

Cars will run regularly to Forest park today.

First National Thanksgiving.

WASHINGTON, D. D., Nov. 22.—An employee of the capitol who is fond of delving into musty congressional records of the past has recently unearthed the first congressional action looking to the establishment of a national Thanksgiving day. This action was taken on September 25, 1789, at the first session of the First congress. The resolution passed by the house of representatives reads as follows:

Resolved, That a joint committee of both houses be appointed to wait on the president of the United States to request that he would recommend to the people of the United States a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many and signal favors of Almighty God, especially by affording them an opportunity peaceably to establish a constitution of government for safety and happiness. The senate agreed to this resolution September 26, and the committee appointed thereunder was composed of Messrs. Johnson and Izard, of the senate, and Boudinot, Sherman and Sylvester, of the house.

At Home to Their Friends. The social entertainment given by K. of P. lodge No. 52 at their hall last night was precisely the success the DEMOCRAT anticipated that it would be.

The members of No. 27, with other friends, were present as invited guests, and were royally entertained.

An elegant lunch was served, which was topped off with fragrant Havanas, and the following special features were had:

Interesting address by H. H. Allen, of Kansas City; songs by Messrs. Billings, Hogg, Dodge and Clark; "The Flower Girl," by the Mandolin club.

A vote of thanks was tendered the Sedalia Candy Palace for a large candy piece in which was presented the emblem and motto of the order.

The Hog Stealing Case.

John Cashman returned last night from Marshall, where he yesterday defended Wm. Stevenson, son of Robert Stevenson, who was charged with grand larceny in the theft of three hogs from Jesse Lyons, of the Longwood neighborhood. The charge of grand larceny was not sustained, but the defendant pleaded guilty to petit larceny and was fined $20 and costs, which he paid.

Notice to Paving Contractors.

The city council of the city of Sedalia, Missouri, will receive and consider bids for the paving of the alley running east and west through block 46, of the original town of Sedalia, Missouri, as provided by an ordinance of said city, entitled "An ordinance providing for the paving of the alley running east and west through block 46, of the original town of Sedalia, Missouri." Passed November 6th, 1893, and approved November 7th, 1893.

All bids shall be based on the provisions of said ordinance, and the plans and specifications for the paving of said alley on file in the office of the city engineer of said city.

All bids shall state price per square yard for doing said paving, and shall be filed with the city clerk in his office not later than 5 o'clock p. m. on the 27th day of November, 1893.

CALIFORNIA.

CALIFORNIA possesses a delightful winter climate. Almost every day is balmy and full of sunshine. To live in such a few months may save you a big doctor's bill. It doesn't cost much to try. The SANTA FE ROUTE will carry you to Los Angeles, San Diego or San Francisco any day, on fast vestibuled express train, in Pullman or tourist sleeper, without change of cars. The journey is through New Mexico and Arizona, where heavy snow-falls rarely come. It is short, quick and comfortable—straight across, not roundabout. Once a week personally-conducted excursions are run to the Pacific Coast in tourist sleepers. Competent porters and agents in charge. Second-class tickets honored, and good care taken of ladies and children without escort. Very cheap rates for one way or round-trip, now in effect. Write to Geo. W. Hagenbuch, P. T. A. Santa Fe Route, 1050 Union avenue and N. E. corner Tenth and Main street, Kansas City, Mo., for copy of California excursion leaflet and handsomely illustrated book, entitled, "To California and Back."

SPEAKING OF PEOPLE.

The seat John Bright used to occupy in the Quaker meeting-house at Rochdale is still without a cushion, as in the days when he worshipped there, and will probably so remain as long as the church stands.

The assertion is made that Rear Admiral Thomas O. Selfridge, retired, is the oldest living officer in the United States navy. He is now in his ninety-first year, and was appointed as a midshipman from Massachusetts on New Year's day, 1818.

Hoosic Falls, N. Y., has a centenarian in the person of Mrs. Nancy Wheeler Boynton, who was born in Fitchburg, Mass., in July, 1793. Her father, Captain Aaron Wheeler, was in command of a Massachusetts company during the revolution.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Lewis Rice of Frederick, Md., enough money has been collected to put an imposing monument over the grave of Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner." His remains are interred in a Georgetown, D. C., cemetery.

In the will of the late Lord Derby he left to every servant on his estates, stablemen, clerks and house servants, a sum equal to two months' wages for each year they had been in his service. To each of the numerous children of the brother who succeeds him and to each of his five step-children $100,000. The estate is valued at $9,000,000.

Perhaps the best work ever done by John Tenniel, the caricaturist whom the queen has knighted, was his fantastic illustration of "Alice in Wonderland." Mr. Tenniel is now seventy-three years old. He has been with Punch for forty years and has done more than any other man except the lamented Leech to make it famous.

Professor Bischoff of the university of St. Petersburg, published in 1872 a pamphlet in which he maintained that the average woman's brain is far inferior in every respect to a man's, this opinion being based on the fact that a woman's brain is generally about 100 grammes lighter. In order to further prove the truth of this statement he ordered that after his death his brain should be weighed. This was done, and those who believed in his theory were amazed to find that the professor's brain was lighter by five grammes than the brain of a woman of the lowest intelligence.

BITS OF FUN.

Mr. Kaller—What is your name my little man? Boy—When I am good it is "Billy," when I am bad it is "William J."

He (stroking a diminutive mustache)—In Queen Elizabeth's time men who wore beards were taxed. She—Yes; and it taxes some men now to raise a beard.

The Wife—Of course, I can make allowance for a little heat of temper. It isn't every man that can be master of himself. The Husband—No, if he has a wife.

Master—How is this, Bridget? My coffee is much stronger to-day than it is usually. Servant Girl—Oh, please, sir, I've made a mistake. I gave you the wrong cup. That is my coffee.

"He became discouraged because he couldn't get to the top and died. That's strange." "Not at all. You see he was at the bottom of a well when the whole thing caved in on him."

Mollie—What a lovely complexion Hattie has. Ellie—Yes, she must use some face wash or other. "She does, I'm sure." "I knew it. I wonder where she gets it?" "Out of the hydrant."

"Any letters for me, miss?" "No." "Any for gran'ma?" "No." "Aunt Sally?" "None." "The Jenkins gals?" "None." "Why, you ain't giv' us any letter in three weeks!" "Can't help it." "Got any side meat?" "Yes." "Well, I reckon we won't take any."

"Mamma," said little Harry, aged 7, "is papa Mr. James L. Davis, senior?" "Yes, Harold." "Then," pursued he, "are you Mrs. James L. Davis, senior?" "Yes," answered his mother again. "Then if I am Mr. James L. Davis, junior, where is Mrs. James L. Davis, junior."

"Mamma, do you think you'll go to heaven?" said Jack, thoughtfully looking into his mother's face. "Yes, Jack, if I'm good," said the little mother cautiously, wondering what would come next. "Then please be good, for papa and I would be so lonesome without you."

"So your ship didn't break any records coming over. Must have been awfully monotonous." Must, eh? The second officer fell from a bridge and broke his arm the first day out, the engineer managed to break the shaft the second, and a lot of poker sharps broke me the third. Nothing very monotonous about that, was there?"

NATURAL NOVELTIES.

Blue-eyed persons are rarely color-blind.

The scorpion is a total abstainer. If a drop of whisky be placed on one's back it will immediately sting itself to death.

The famous "Rock in Horeb," being the rock which Moses struck with his rod in order to give water to the children of Israel, is religiously preserved even down to this date. It is a block of granite about six yards square, lying tottering and loose in the valley of Rephidim.

C. S. Elliott, of Morgan county, Ga., has a curiosity in a hen that lays double eggs. The hen is of the ordinary Brahma variety, lays once a day, but the eggs are all double, as each one contains two whites and two yolks. He recently set the hen on about a dozen of these double eggs and was surprised to find two chickens for every egg he put in the nest.

The Trouble Settled.

The conference between Grand Chiefs Arthur and Sargent and General Manager Ramsey, of the St. Louis Terminal Railroad association, was satisfactorily concluded yesterday. The question of compensation of engineers and firemen for short runs was settled on the basis of a half day's payment for four and one-half hours or less, and all time over that limit on short runs will be allowed for in accordance with the agreement governing overtime work.

Carried Away $200.

Mrs. Deegan, who has rooms over Rickman's butcher shop, reports to the police that her son, Jack, is missing, and also $200 of her hard-earned savings.

According to her statement, she had $400 saved up, and fearing to trust it to the banks, secreted it in the house, her son knowing where it was concealed. Jack recently left home, and one-half of her money disappeared at the same time, but Mrs. Deegan does not want the young man arrested.

Credit Business

Is very uncertain. There are a great many men who are not worthy of credit, and a great many who are good; a goodly share who are not prompt. We being desirous of paying our bills promptly, and knowing that we can't do this and do a credit business, we have decided to sell for cash only. We shall keep a full stock of the best coals in the market, which we will sell as low as the lowest. Call and see us at 630 East Third street.

Acquitted of Murder.

Mrs. Columbus Yarnall, on trial for her life as accessory to the murder of her husband, was yesterday acquitted at Hermitage, Hickory county, to which place her case had gone on change of venue from Webster county, where the assassination occurred. Wesley Hargis, who turned state's evidence, and admitted to having been bribed to do the killing, was sentenced to ninety-nine years in the penitentiary.

WHAT HE SAW

HE dreamed he saw something, and he looked and behold the world was full of cemeteries full of tombstones and monuments. And there were inscriptions on them, and whole cemeteries full of "written tears to the departed" were hung high in the air by great monstrous poles with monstrous hooks with long barbs on them. And on the poles were secret signs that an angel translated "fishing for suckers." And he read the memorials on the stones and they all begun: "Here Lies." And one read, "To a once merry crew of old-style, misfit, bad-shaped, off-colored suits that roved the ancient seas from ten to fifteen years ago, now going at 50 cents on the dollar." And the stone seemed to smile and the pole bobbed a little.

Another read, "Departed this life in the 80s 1000 overcoats who got their necks broke in a race with new styles, new cuts, new materials." Beneath was a P. S. that read, "If thou takest me to thy bosom thou wilt be an Exodus." And the pole bobbed a little more. Off in a corner was a bent-over stone and on it was, "Here be Old Hats," with an ancient crown cut in the stone, and the P. S. read, "The shades of unfashionable life abide in him who do buy such." And the pole bobbed a good bob. And it was so on all the stones about old goods. And he then saw in his dream the wrecks of many 1000's of ancient style houses. He shivered. He got cold. He got colder. Had the buck ager. He saw the pole a bobbing. The stones begun to knock their heads together, and he waked up to find himself shaped up and genteelly fixed out in natty fall styles of 1893, and on his suit, overcoat, hat and underwear was the sign BLAIRS. And he was much tickled, and he told all his tribe how near he come to getting jabbed with a hook that was on the pole and "to always go to BLAIRS." And they do to this day say go to by the keg, case, jug, bottle and dram. 112 Osage. FRANK KRUEGER, Manager.State Constables Mobbed.

COLUMBIA, S. C., November 24.—State Constables Swan and Strobel were mobbed by a large crowd at Beaufort Tuesday night while trying to seize some whisky. Brickbats, eggs and curses are said to have been heaped upon the constables. The governor, it is ascertained, has sent telegrams to the sheriff of Beaufort and the captain of the local militia company, and that he has given some kind of instructions to the assistant attorney general and the assistant adjutant general. Swan and Strobel went to Beaufort to see about liquor that had been smuggled into the state. They got aboard a steamer with a warrant, but the captain declined to recognize it.
